ADMINISTRATION OF NORTH-EASTERN RHODESIA.

(Government Notice No. 5 of 1903.)

Administrator's Office, Fort Jameson,
North-Eastern Rhodesia, February 6, 1903.

Flags.

The following warrant is published for general information.

ROBERT CODRINGTON,
Administrator.

By the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

WHEREAS we deem it expedient that the vessels belonging to and employed in the service of the British South Africa Company, not being trading-vessels, shall be permitted to wear the Blue Ensign of His Majesty's Fleet, with the badge of the Company on the fly thereof;

And whereas we deem it expedient that the Union Flag of Great Britain and Ireland, with the badge of the British South Africa Company in the centre thereof, shall be used by the Administrator of the said Company when embarked in boats and other vessels belonging to the Company;

And whereas we deem it expedient that the merchant-ships and trading-vessels of the British South Africa Company shall be permitted to wear the Red Ensign of His Majesty's Fleet, with the badge of the Company on the fly thereof:

We do, therefore, by virtue of the power and authority vested in us, hereby warrant and authorize—

(1.) The Blue Ensign of His Majesty's Fleet, with the badge of the British South Africa Company on the fly, to be worn on board vessels belonging to and employed in the service of the said Company, not being trading-vessels;

(2.) The Union Flag of Great Britain and Ireland, with the badge of the Company in the centre, to be used by the Administrator of the Company when embarked in boats and other vessels belonging to the Company; and

(3.) The Red Ensign of His Majesty's Fleet, with the badge of the Company on the fly, to be worn on board the merchant-ships and trading-vessels belonging to the said Company.

Given under our hands and seal of the Office of Admiralty, this 11th day of November, 1902.

(Signed) J. A. FISHER,
J. DURNFORD.

By command of their Lordships,
(Signed) EVAN MACGREGOR.
